

This is one of the many times the citizens of this country need Congress to consider their interests above that of large corporations. Your claim to value and support small business can be backed up with a vote against this and other big mergers.